WELCOME Carol! In addition the application for Membership was received by Tami Wilson, her application was read to those in attendance also. All members in attendance voted to approve her application and become a member of LRCPV. Welcome Tami!!!!

We received Thank You cards from Janis and Bill for inviting them to judge at our Specialty. Reviewing the need for Post Office Box.

Match: Tricia reported that the date is August 20,2017 at Suffield Vet, she proposed that we have 3 rings. There was some question regarding the back ring and what gates would be used. Members (Annmarie and Deb) suggests using their gates, Ann said she would ask Dr. Burke about additional gates. Tricia reported Tina is getting the flyer together. Deb and Annmarie offered to judge. Tricia will check to see if Danette is available also.

Specialty:

Specialty 2017 went extremely well. Ann Huntington reported it went off without a hitch. We had many volunteers which made for a good time for all. Entries were great. We had quite a bit of Catalogs remaining so Ann will inquire if we can get less in the future to save on costs. We will discuss as to whether to continue with the All-Breed portion of the Rally/Obedience at our Specialty. As for our photographer for 2018 we would like to attempt to secure the same photographer we had in 2016. The 2019 Specialty Judges were discussed Ann will make contact.

Supported Entries:

We are all set to Support the Entries on Sunday at the Thanksgiving Cluster. Awaiting the finalization of the Supported Entry information from Great Barrington KC for February 2018.

Hunt:

Keith reported that the Hunt Committee had a meeting and he was made Hunt committee Chair. We have a training day for members on Sunday June 11, 2017 at Nod Brook in Simsbury, bring your ducks. Hunt Committee will discuss the August training and report at next meeting.
