Correspondence

Laura B. reported the AKC sent a packet with updated information for Dog Show Rules effective 4/29/2026. In addition, Laura B received an application for membership from Cailin McClung her application was presented to the membership in attendance to be voted on at the next meeting in August 2026.

WC/FETCH

Our annual WC/Fetch trial was held this morning at Nod Brook WMA in Simsbury, AnnMarie reported we had 7 entries for the LRC Working Certificate and 15 entries for the Fetch trial. We had a beautiful day for the trial and everything went smoothly. We would like to get a few more entries for next year. Annmarie will report on the profit/loss at the next business meeting.

Sue Werner took beautiful photographs of all the dogs running in the WC/Fetch trial. For a $20 donation to LRCPV members can access the file through a link to the album to see/print out photos from the day.

Specialty Wrap UP

Show site we received positive feedback from exhibitors. The future judges should be put in hotels out by Bradley and host the judge's dinner out that way on Saturday. We will need to change up how the lunches will be handled as the food truck was far from our rings. We will look into getting our own food truck. We would like to compare the costs of MBF to Dogzibit, Laura L will pull the information. We will use Dogzibit for next year to see how it goes as this was our first year. The exhibitors were looking for Coffee and Donuts we will make sure we have coffee and donuts for the exhibitors we will see about using our coffee pots with a small generator (Reilly has a small quiet unit). We also will need to go back to the judging schedule we had used prior so that we reduce the ring conflicts. Annmarie welcomes any comments to help things run smoothly. The trailer should be inventoried so we know what is in there and a list kept if anyone removes something from the trailer, at least send an email advising if something is no longer in the trailer. We are in need of another judge for the 2027 Specialty. We expect to have a judge recommendation meeting at Figaro's in Enfield in July, Gretchen will coordinate the date.
